NILE

Nile is an American technical death metal band from Greenville, South Carolina, United States, formed in 1993. The band has been the rising force of death metal in the new millennium with their brutal and technical style. Nile has also been known for their lyrics about Egyptian mythology on their many classic albums and for their withering live performances. They have just released their new album “What Should Not Be Unearthed” to great acclaim. We are proud to bring these giants of death metal to Inferno Metal Festival for the first time. This is not to be missed!
