At the core of Winterfylleth's sound is a captivating juxtaposition of ferocious black metal elements and a profound connection to their cultural and historical roots. Winterfylleth's commitment to their craft extends beyond their music, as they often incorporate visual art and aesthetics into their presentations. Their live performances are known for their intensity and the band's ability to recreate the atmospheres they evoke on their albums. VLTIMAS

Vltimas is a formidable metal supergroup that brings together a trio of renowned musicians, each with their own legacy in the extreme metal scene. The band's lineup comprises David Vincent (former Morbid Angel) on vocals, Rune "Blasphemer" Eriksen (ex-Mayhem) on guitar, and Flo Mounier (Cryptopsy) on drums. This convergence of talent from different corners of the metal world has resulted in a distinctive and powerful sonic offering. Vltimas is a testament to the individual prowess of its members, showcasing a fusion of death and black metal elements that push the boundaries of the genre. Even though Blasphemer is originally from Norway, the band has only played once in his homeland. So it is time to bring Vltimas to Inferno Metal Festival for the very first time!
